Heads of the City of Springfield

Joseph B. Miller
Defendant

The above Defendant voluntarily appeared before me on Tuesday March 18th 1890 to answer the complaint made by James J. Curry Chief of Police, wherein the said def^t is charged with having violated Sec. 3 of the amendment of Dec. 31, 1887 as amended of an Ordinance entitled "an Ordinance to license houses & taverns and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous & fermented liquors" &c. &c. as by said complaint more fully appears.

Mr. C. A. Marsh appeared for the City, no one appearing for the defendant. The defendant when asked to plead, said "in the absence of Counsel I plead not-guilty".

Wednesday March 26th 1890 was then fixed & agreed upon, for the trial of said cause, at 2 P.M.

On Wednesday March 26th the defendant called for a writ - which was issued to George W. Grant, policeman and made returnable at 2 P.M. on said day - at which time the case was called & proceeded with at the City Court room. The ^{plaintiff} was represented by Craig A. Marsh Esq. and the defendant by Saml. Kalish.

The case was moved by Mr. Craig A. Marsh.

Mr. Kalish moved for a non suit on the ground that the city could not grant any license to defendant at the time the def^t license was granted, under the ordinance named, but - should license under the "Writ Act" after hearing argument of Counsel. The motion was denied and the following named jury

The case was then opened to Court & jury by Mr. Marsh.

The following witnesses were sworn on behalf of the plaintiff viz.

Joseph B. Cowart
Jimmie J. Carey and Chas. Grise

The following was offered in evidence on behalf of plaintiff

1st & 2nd Book of Ordinance (manuscript Ordinance)

Book of resolutions

3 Books of Minutes of Common Council relating to the proceedings upon Jm. Miller's petition for licence Book of licences or licence of Miller & Signell by wife Petition for licence, (objected to by Karish)

Transfer of J. Carey of Interest in fine of any ~~association~~ ^{association} of great in evidence & admitted

Witness sworn for defendant - Arthur J. Gallup - Walter L. Hatfield, Elmore L. Moffatt - Joseph B. Miller

After the evidence was in, the respective ^{Common Council} ~~summing~~ ^{summing} up to 15 minutes each.

Officer Bro. W. Grant - was then sworn & given charge of the jury -

At 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ o'clock the jury sent for the Court - & stated that they were unable to agree. I then adjourned the case until Monday April 7/90 same hour & place - & discharged the jury -

On March 27. Mr. Craig A. Marsh Jr. - moved the issuing of a new venire -

On Monday April 7th/90 the Court again adjourned the case to Monday ^{April} ~~March~~ 14th same hour and place -

Monday ^{April} 14th 1890 Case called at 2¹⁵ pm.
and before the jury was called on Walsh ^{supra} to maintain on the following grounds -

- 1st - Renewal of motion made at former trial
- 2^d - That ~~the ordinance~~ ^{while} the ordinance provided that 1/2 of the fine should go to the informer, ~~but~~ the Charter did not impose upon counsel the disbursement of fine.
- 3 Case was improperly brought - 4th That the Complaint was defective in that it charged two specific offences viz: the "keeping open" and "permitting persons to Congregate". Counsel for Plaintiff demanded that opposing counsel state to the Court in what respect it was claimed that the case was improperly brought - defendants counsel declined to state.

After hearing argument of the respective Counsel the motion was denied.

The following were then called and sworn (the venire having been issued April 11th to Officer Thos M. Cne -) Francis E. Marsh - Charles H. Humphreys, Chas. R. Thier, William Addis, J. V. Berkman, John H. Rowland, Wm. H. Proctor, Lemuel E. Hart, Wm. H. Hardy, Wm. W. Dunn, John J. Kenney, J. F. McIntyre -

The case was opened by Craig, Marsh and the following witnesses sworn for the Plaintiff, Joseph B. Cowart, Chas. Cisse, John-Johnson, Nicholas Conway, W. L. Hildreth

Some documentary evidence was admitted without objection; and it was formally admitted by defendants counsel that the ordinance referred to in the affidavit of James J. Carey had been adopted and approved as set forth in said affidavit and the printed ordinance of the City of New York.

Miller in evidence as before - A Lance of J. B. Miller of 1890 also offered in evidence by plaintiffs Counsel & objected to by Defs Counsel - it was admitted -

Witnesses for the defense, were Joseph B. Miller Elmore S. Moffatt -

After summing up by the respective Counsel, The Court charged the jury & swore officers in Orange for about one hour the Court

Judge was sent for, and asked if he could give them any assurance that the sentence would be light - in case there was a verdict of guilty. - They were informed that no further statement or that score ^{would be made} was made in the charge verbal - if any recommendation was made to the Court, - the Court would listen.

Shortly after the Court was called back & told that the jury had agreed. The Court then read the verdict, ^{which was that they found the defendant} and the jury were discharged. The Court then handed the judge a written request - signed by ~~the~~ ~~jury~~ ^{for} all the jury, that sentence be suspended, the defendant being present, - the Court then suspended sentence,

+ jury by Mr. Craig C. Marsh. and the following witnesses were sworn on behalf of Plaintiff, viz: George W Grant William Willson, Joseph B. Cewart &
Laurie Schmidt.

The ordinance was offered and admitted in evidence.
It was also admitted that Frank Link the defendant was licensed by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield to sell liquor at wholesale. It was also admitted by counsel for defendant that the six bottles of Lager beer received by Schmeider were delivered to Mr. ^{Piereson} ~~Piereson~~ and that this was the same beer that the boy William ^{Wilson} ~~Piereson~~ had bought.

Mr. Reed then opened the case for the defence to the Court and jury and the following witnesses were sworn for the defendant, viz: Frank Link and Garret Wiley.

After the evidence on both sides was closed the respective counsel summed, the Court charged the jury, and swore officer Hannagan and placed him in charge of the jury.
Who in about one hour returned a verdict of "guilty" and urgently recommended the defendant to the mercy of the Court. The jury was then discharged and sentence was deferred until Monday September 22nd at 10 A.M. — on Monday I again deferred closed and Mr. Marsh summing up for the plaintiff, Thomas Mc Cue, an officer was sworn and placed in charge of the jury. The jury retired and in a few minutes returned, rendering their verdict as follows: "We find the defendant guilty as charged." Plaintiff's counsel moved for sentence and thereupon fined the defendant the sum of $100 or if not 30 days in the County Jail. Defendant's counsel then gave notice of appeal. The jury being discharged Court adjourned.

 The plaintiff offered in evidence the City Ordinance both in printed and script form, also the application of Michael Watson for license and minutes regarding same, also stub book of licenses. In a few days defendant appeared and paid the fine of $100.
